OVERALL ENERGY

You're at the verge of a new beginning and it's connected to the lessons you came here to learn. You're being called towards new discoveries but in order to do so, you need to loosen your grip on the past. You may be receiving ideas and clarity on what this calling may be, but you don't yet have all the pieces of the puzzle. Whatever this is will likely bring you tremendous joy. Make sure to open your heart to this calling, even if that means doing the things that scare you. You're being dared to do something different with your life so embrace this new beginning. Destiny is at play.

BLESSINGS

You may be unsure of what's in front of you or where to go next. You feel a call to action but may not know what step to take next or even if you should move towards it at all. But the opportunity of this moment is to take a step back and enjoy what you already have in front of you, the success you've already built, and the clarity you already have. There are many gifts and blessings available to you in this moment that you may be overlooking. Enjoy the harvest you've cultivated.

Take this moment to indulge and focus on your own pleasure - rest, recharge, and have fun. By doing so, it will give you greater clarity and confidence in the things you desire to manifest. Enjoying yourself and your inner peace will serve to bring you greater success. Spend time alone, celebrate where you've come, and follow the things that light up your heart - you deserve it!

CHALLENGES

It may feel that your goals and wishes are far from your grasp. There's a sense of lack, that something you deeply desire is unattainable to you at this time. But that doesn't have to be true. Your wishes are not as far away as you think. The challenge and lesson is to step out of a scarcity mindset and open up to new possibilities. Nurturing yourself and connecting with your own essence on a deeper level will help you have the confidence to take the leap of faith. Trust that things are unfolding underneath the surface for your highest good. Your intuition is highly attuned at this time. Make it a point to connect with your inner knowing so that you can have greater clarity, emotional balance, and strength.

HIDDEN INFLUENCES

It's important for you to take care of yourself and your energy. There's a lot that's currently overwhelming you on an energetic level. This is a time to say "no" more and be selective to what and who you give your energy to. Slow down or take a pause so that you can gain greater strength and resilience. This is about making steady, deliberate progress towards your goals. What you're currently birthing is meant to be built on a solid foundation. It's a long-term game and you'll need to prioritize your well-being in order to see it through. In the meantime, let go of what's not important. You're not meant to have all the answers right now. Surrender to the flow of life and trust you'll soon know what to do next.

YOUR SOUL'S NUDGES

Right now your higher self wants you to focus on connecting with your intuition and paying attention to the signs you're being sent. There's a lot of potential and creative energy around you that you can use to birth your desires. But in order to tap into that divine inspiration, you have to get out of your head and into your body.

The universe is sending you a lot of support right now to help you see the big picture, as well as the small details. Keep your eyes open for synchronicities and do not dismiss something because it doesn't make logical sense. Run it through your heart first and see what resonates. Overall, this is a sign to listen more.

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

There's a part of you that might be feeling restless and this is because you want things to happen faster than they are meant to. Recognize that you're in a receptive energy cycle and now is not the time for doing. If you surrender to that, letting yourself relax and flow, you'll be able to make the most of this energy and as a result, discover a bigger vision. If you allow yourself to get out of your head and into your body, you'll re-ignite your passion, aspirations, and inner fire. You'll know when the time is right to move forward and take action. Trust that you're exactly where you're meant to be in this moment. Make the most of it by aligning to the rhythm of your life so you can more consciously co-create. Again, pay attention to your intuition and you'll know what to do.

GUIDANCE

There's something that didn't turn out how you expected and you may be caught up in the disappointment of it. Know that there is truly a silver lining to this even if it doesn't seem like it. Shift this energy by going within and focus on yourself. This is a good moment to step into your own personal power and independence. You need some space to be alone, explore new ideas that pique your curiosity, and gain greater self awareness. Let go of other people's dramas and focus on yourself. (To restate what came through in the blessings section, now is the time to indulge in your own essence and find your bliss there). Then when it's time, you'll know what path to take next and be able to build a stronger foundation than before.

WHAT'S UNFOLDING NEXT

The opportunity to take action and follow through on your plans is right around the corner. You'll be able to pursue a new direction you're truly passionate about. You'll be in a better position to use your power, talents, and strengths to take charge of a situation. There's a lot of excitement around this opportunity. It feels like a passion project fueled by an incredible amount of inspiration. It feels like a fruitful investment of your time and energy. Pay attention to the signs and have the courage to take inspired action. You can create a lot of positive momentum if you do.

TAKING A CLOSER LOOK

The following section talks about the energies present at this time in 7 specific areas of your life, as well as guidance for making the most of them.

MONEY, WORK, & RESOURCES

Pay close attention to any contracts, legal or business dealings, or financial advisors to avoid any mishaps or miscommunication.

It feels to me that this is more about getting back in touch with yourself and your own purpose. There may be resistance around your deepest calling as your not seeing the bigger picture. Realize that you have so much to be proud of and offer the world. Look at things objectively so that you can see how to leverage your talents in a much more powerful way, that will bring you greater prosperity. There's an opportunity for you to step up in an authentic and unique way.

LOVE & RELATIONSHIPS

It feels like you've been dedicating a lot of your time and energy to make a relationship work or find new love but you've been missing the mark. It may be time to detach and rethink your approach. But know that there's a new opportunity for love flowing towards you. It may happen quickly and spontaneously. In the meantime, don't give up.

Take some time to recharge your batteries. It may also be a good time to work through any shadows that may block this new love. Be present in the here and now, fully enjoying the moment. Love is coming in.

YOUR POWER & SELF-WORTH

There might be this karmic pattern of thinking you have to do and achieve more in order to be worthy. There's this need to prove yourself. But that keeps you from noticing and appreciating what you've already achieved. This is a pattern that you may be aware of and is likely to come up time after time in your life -- thinking that you need to prove yourself in order to earn somebody's attention. This is coming up for healing at this time. You can shift this pattern by coming back to yourself and following your own heart's desires. Do things because you genuinely want to and think it will bring you joy, not from a sense of seeking external validation.

RADIANCE & WELL-BEING

Stepping into your feminine energy would be incredibly nurturing for you right now. It will help you balance your energy, illuminate your radiance, and give you more vitality. Taking the time to recharge, relax, and open up to life will help you more deeply create the stability you're seeking. It's a matter of balancing being with doing.

YOUR VOICE & EXPRESSION

Your energy is a bit scattered right now so you may not be speaking up and showing up as you would like. You want to progress and show up in a bigger way but there's a bit of a fog. You want to get back on track, express yourself, and work on repairing your foundation. But there's a lot that's still hidden or being kept from you. You're still trying to figure what's true and what's not. I'm getting the energy that you might be going through some sort of breakup, separation, or betrayal. Someone was keeping secrets and it has caused you some pain.

The guidance is to clear your mind, space, and energy of other people's stuff. Find your own voice by letting go and decluttering your life. Prioritize what's important to you and let go of the rest so that you can tune into your own wisdom. The opportunity to move forward is coming up.

CREATIVITY & IMAGINATION

You may feel disconnected from your inner power and creativity. It's important to focus on your own self-care and lean into the support that's around you. Your creativity may be blocked because you're not fully stepping into your magic. You might be doubting yourself but know that you have what it takes to go for what you want. Stand up for what you want and what's important to you. A change in perspective is needed so you can recognize your power. See things for what they truly are, working on your mindset so you don't let the ego run the show. Leaning into and aligning to the rhythm of your life will help you reconnect to your power. Know your worth and realize that not everyone will appreciate what you have to offer. But you still need to stand up for who you are and unapologetically be you. Don't compromise your integrity.

YOUR SPIRITUALITY

There's a lot of physical and emotional healing flowing in. You're being nourished and nurtured, allow it in. This is a renewal, you're stepping into a new life. You're in a pivotal moment and it's going to lead you to a greater level of success. You've been preparing to step up and show up in a bigger way. Know that it's happening and let go of your need to have all the details. Your attention is being nudged to the things you need to look at. Pay attention to the signs and they'll tell you what you need to know so you can figure things out step by step. Be present and allow this higher vibrational energies to come in and transform you.

PARTING MESSAGE

You're being called to connect more with your soul's wisdom. There are numerous gifts within you that you came here to express and explore. This is showing up as a new path or idea you're bringing to life. But you may be feeling unprepared. Know that you've done this before. The intuitive hits and ideas you're receiving are divinely guided.

AFFIRMATION:

"I unlock any forgotten wisdom and soul gifts from lifetimes past".

QUESTIONS TO PONDER OR JOURNAL ON:

- How am I feeling disconnected from my power?
- In what ways am I doubting my abilities and magic?
- How can I connect to my intuition more deeply?
- What does it mean for me to step into my feminine energy?
- How can I prioritize self care and look after myself better?
- Where are other people's thoughts and energy influencing mine? How can I connect to my own energy more?
